Collins Bus Corporation Names Matt Scheuler as Regional Sales Manager

South Hutchinson, Kansas – Collins Bus Corporation, the largest manufacturer of small school buses in North America, announced today that Matt Scheuler has been promoted to Regional Sales Manager, effective immediately. Scheuler will maintain his position as After-Market Parts Manager. In his role as a regional sales manager, he will work primarily with distributors in the western regions of the United States and Canada. He will continue to work with all distributors on parts issues.

“I’m pleased to have Matt Scheuler as part of the Collins sales staff,” stated John Doswell, Vice President for Sales and Marketing. “Matt already has great relationships with our dealers and he’s ready to take on the added responsibilities as a regional sales manager.”

Scheuler is a Kansas native and a graduate of Wichita State University. He has been employed by Collins Industries for nine years. Collins Bus Corporation, a division of Collins Industries, Inc., is North America's largest producer of Type "A" small school buses and sells under the brands of Collins, Mid Bus, and Corbeil through a network of over 50 dealers across the United States and Canada.
